

It is disturbing to learn of Sinclair Broadcasting's plan to force all its stations to air as "news" a "documentary" which was funded by partisan political activists. Sinclair's blocking of ABC's Nightline show when the names of the Iraqi war dead were read demonstrates a lack of balance which is unacceptable on the public airwaves.

This citizen and voter hopes that the FCC takes a hard look at Sinclair's misuse of their public trust.

Phil wallas